

Core school concerns still plagues Board

A large agenda of items came under discussion at the St. Albert Protestant Separate School District #6 meeting on Wednesday, March 13.

The most significant item was the proposed Lacombe Park Community Core School. Concern was expressed following a recent letter from the School Buildings Branch. The letter left doubts in the minds of the Board and Mr. Jim Wiltshire suggested that the School Buildings Branch be contacted with a view to clarifying the rather ambiguous rules and regulations.

Chairman, Mr. Charlie Schroder felt the core school concept was becoming less desirable and he moved that the Board request a meeting with the Hon. Lou Hyndman, Minister of Education, to solve problems. Definite commitments are needed from the Dept. of Education with regards to the number of rooms, the timing and the kind of portables to be used. The Protestant School Board is not alone in its problem relative to a new core school. The Catholic School Board is faced with a similar situation.

Under Trustee items, Mr. Don Munro suggested a public meeting in the Lacombe Park area prior to the Board meeting with the minister. It is hoped that the parents of Lacombe Park will attend this important meeting and familiarize themselves with the current problems the Board is experiencing in the acquisition of a new school.

The date will be announced at a later date.

New staff for the district came under discussion. Mr. W. Webber moved that the Board approve the hiring of another assistant superintendent, effective August 1, 1974. Mr. C. Schroder moved that the district hire a supervisor of instruction with a math/science background who would be responsible for a program encompassing grades 1 - 12. Both motions were carried.

School sites in Akinsdale came under consideration as a result of a letter from Walker, Newby and Associates Ltd., architects for the developers, Qualico Developments Ltd. The letter urged the Board to review the number of sites and the location and the Board hoped to have a decision in two weeks.

The Board read the program and report of the Outdoor Education Committee and decided to delegate knowledgeable people to evaluate the program and report on its strength and weaknesses.

Outdoors Unlittered Day in Alberta will be Monday, May 6th and Mr. C. Schroder moved that the Board support the program and authorize schools to devote any day that week to clean-up activities.

Blain Burfield just coming in from a three-mile dog race on the Yukon river, with "the smartest dog in the Yukon," Nookie in the lead and Polar and Sister, two pups. Nookie is a movie star of such films as the Mad Trapper and Rat River and is part Samoyed, part Labrador. The young racer has a trophy and medal for 1971, a Yukon Sourdough Rendezvous Shield and smaller plaque, won in 1972, a Trophy Cup in 1973 and the Major Evans Trophy won earlier this month, plus a number of crests.

Local dog team racer wins fourth trophy in Yukon

Blain Burfield of 8 Grandville Avenue has to do a bit of travel to keep up with his favorite sport. At 13, Blain has already got himself something of a reputation as a dog team musher and this year he received a special invitation from the City of Whitehorse to race in the Yukon Sourdough Rendezvous events. Prior to moving to St. Albert about a year ago, the Burfields made their home in Whitehorse and Blain had been a three-time winner in the junior dog races.

This year he made it four and brought back the Major Evans Trophy. Racers in the junior division do a three-mile stint, with each team leaving at two-minute intervals on the course laid out along the river. Blain's time was 8 minutes 10 seconds with a three-dog team, and he reports that it has been done in six minutes with eight dogs. With temperatures around the zero mark it was a slow track this year. The musher runs behind the sleigh or rides on the back of the runners. Sleighs are of light but very strong wood and for racing must be equipped with a brake on the back, a snow hook and an emergency line called a G line. Please turn to page 2.

Mayor's address to Chamber sparks question period

Speaking on the 'Expansion of the Town of St. Albert,' at the March 13 meeting of the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Gibbon said that the expansion factor of the town is predicted at 3,307 per year, and that the policy of Town Council is to have a minimum of two separate developers going at one time.

The mayor told the meeting, with 28 members in attendance, that the town has received a proposal for a non-polluting industry to purchase 80 acres of land in the east part of St. Albert, and that the company Syn-crude, has planned a 100,000 square foot building, of which 25,000 square feet will be for office and computer operations, and 75,000 square feet for a prefabrication plant. "They have put up a $10,000 unrecoverable 60 day option to purchase," he is quoted in the minutes of the meeting.

Meeting called on industry - green belt

The St. Albert Community Planning Committee is holding a public meeting on Thursday evening, March 21 at Leo Nickerson School. President Barry Breadner will chair the meeting, and invite discussion on the Committee's recommendation that the proposed rezoning of 80 acres on the south-east boundary of St. Albert for industrial development be withheld until consultation can be carried

The mayor also stated that Council has rezoned the land to Industrial on a six month limitation, after which the land will revert to agricultural. Please turn to page 2.

The only way to get to St. Albert from Equestrian Manor last Thursday morning was to ride in and Herbert Herbers and Bill Godsmen arrived at the Post Office about noon. "A couple of times we had to jump the horses through the drifts," they said. They loaded up their packs with meat and supplies, picked up the mail and headed back. For a good part of the homeward trip the horses wouldn't walk - they ran. After you've been snowed in for four days you begin to worry a bit about what you would do if something happens, like a serious illness, said Mr. Herbers senior, owner of the manor. The Herbers have a family of six and five employees and they were glad to see the riders back with the supplies.

Drugs in the home

Alberta Drug and Alcohol Abuse Commission will be in attendance at the mall.

Recently the local chapter heard a talk on the use of drugs by Dr. Mossing who raised some questions on amounts of drugs that turn up in home medicine cabinets. He felt that antibiotics are probably overprescribed and that our society is not really rampant with anxiety, and that mood altering drugs can lead to abuse and may create a weakened society unable to face expected stress. He also gave results of recent surveys in Edmonton on amounts and types of drugs found in homes and their cost.

The display will also feature a Poster Contest on Smoking and Drinking, with prizes of $10 for the best entry from junior high and high school entrants. Mrs. Peg McPherson will judge the posters at one o'clock and entries are being accepted until 4 p.m. March 22 at school offices.

PENALTY FOR PAYING CASH

If you pay cash in a store that accepts credit cards, are you being socked for the cost the store incurs in honoring other people's credit? The answer, according to the 350,000-member, non-profit Consumers Union (U.S. publishers of Consumer Reports magazine), is a resounding "yes," says The Financial Post. In a suit filed last week in Federal District Court in Washington, D.C., the Union claims American Express and a member bank of BankAmericard are violating federal antitrust laws by contractually forbidding member merchants to charge lower prices to cash customers. According to the suit, member merchants in the U.S. must pay a service charge of 2%-8% of the sales price of an article to the credit card company, but they do not give an equivalent discount to the customer who pays cash. Why, Consumers Union wonders, should credit card users be thus subsidized? If it wins the suit, credit card issuers would be required to notify merchants that they can offer the discounts to cash customers, although the merchants would not be compelled to do so. According to the Centre for Law and Social Policy, a public interest law firm handling the suit, American Express and BankAmericard were selected as a sort of test case, because each represents a major type of card. Numerically, BankAmericard is the number two bank card in the U.S. with 26 million cardholders (Master Charge is number one with 32 million). Its Canadian version is ChargeX, with 3.8 million cardholders. American Express was selected as representative of the travel and entertainment card. In Canada, the company has close to 3,000,000 cardholders. Altogether, there are about 200 million credit card carriers in the U.S., about one per person. (In Canada, according to a recent estimate (Financial Post, Feb. 23), there are about 17 million.) If the Consumers Union suit is won, however, the U.S. numbers may be reduced. With some credit card companies charging membership fees as well as interest, and with the loss of a 2%-3% discount, it could prove expensive for customers to use credit.

MONEY FOR OLD ROPE

A Wallsend England worker who came up with a bright idea to cut wastage on her machine was surprised when management awarded her a cash gift.

But Mrs. Violet McMullen surprised the management in turn by handing the money straight back.

Mother of three, Mrs. McMullen asked that the money be used to give pensioners a Christmas night out.

And Mr. Harry Ward, personnel manager at British Ropes Willington Quay works, said: "It was one of the best gestures I have seen for a long time."

Mrs. McMullen's idea will help to cut down the number of damaged spools of rope which cannot be sent to customers.

"I have been working on the spools for years and the idea came to me when I saw piles of reject material," said Mrs. McMullen, of Jubilee Street, Wallsend.

"I was surprised when I was given the cash because I didn't expect anything. I gave it to our retired employees fund to help give them all a good night out."

Mr. Ward added: "I hope the fact that Mrs. McMullen's suggestion was accepted will be an incentive to other workers. Nobody knows a machine as well as the person working on it."

Mr. Dick Plain, secretary of the Committee, met with Syncrude representatives this morning and will be reporting his findings at the meeting tomorrow night.

MLA Ernie Jamison will also speak briefly on the concepts of Regional Boards and shared industrial assessment which he considers a viable alternative to the proposed siting of industry within town borders.

The meeting is open to all residents of St. Albert and the neighboring district people who would be affected and the Committee will welcome the opinions, comments and suggestions of all.

For the benefit of new residents, Leo Nickerson School is located on the corner of Sycamore Avenue and Cunningham Road.

weather and the celebrations go night and day for a week. Stores and banks wear Klondike fronts, 'keystone cops' haul cages around to nab offenders appearing without beards. There are melodrama performances, street dancing, flour packing contests, junior and senior dog races and a variety of northern sporting attractions. The population of 12,000 is swelled with visitors and everyone relaxes for a week of fun.

While Blain was there he stayed with his former teacher who enjoys dog racing and has 40 or so dogs. As for the Eskimos, says Blain, they mainly use snowmobiles now. He mentioned also that Edmonton's Nick Molofy holds the top time record for the sourdough senior dog races, 55 minutes for the 15 mile cross country race.

A grade 8 student at Sir George Simpson School, Blain also enjoys hockey and skated daily to keep his legs in shape for the dog races.

Young writers win honorable mention

Four students at St. Albert High School were among 47 Alberta students who received Honorable Mention Certificates for submissions considered outstanding to the Canada-wide Student Writing Contest, sponsored by Canada Permanent Trust. They are Jeananne Kathol for "Today we Adopted Lynn Therese;" Elizabeth Keyes for "The Dream House;" Pat Keyes for "Return Trip" and Colleen Sheehan for "How Do I Love."

Well known Canadian novelist, W. O. Mitchell judged the entries and selected a Calgary student, Patricia Van Teghne as best young writer in Alberta, awarding her story "Turning Tides" first prize in the Alberta category. The 11 provincial winners, who all received $300., were judged together to determine the winner of the $1,000 grand prize, which is considered the most prestigious literary prize in Canada for creative writing at the high school level. This year's winner was a Sackville, New Brunswick student, Laurie Stanley.

"The tremendous response of manuscripts entered in this contest," Mr. Mitchell commented, "must be evidence of interest in creative writing probably unheard of in Canadian schools 15 or 20 years ago. A contest such as this one seems to be a marvellous lever upon the imagination of students, who otherwise might not have written their first short story.

Canada Permanent's creative writing contest which has been an annual event for the past seven years is open to high school students across Canada. In this year's contest over 1,750 entries were submitted by students from coast to coast, which is a record. The first prize winning stories in each province are published in book form and are sent to high school libraries.

Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny James of St. Michael street and their nephew, Sgt. Bill Bolen of the Parachute Division based at Griesbach, motored to Calgary, March 12 to attend the funeral services for Mr. James's brother, George. He died at 65 years, a year after his retirement and had been in ill health for some time. Returning the following day they ran into nasty weather and road conditions and from Innisfail to St. Albert had a nerve wrecking trip.

About 100 local residents were without power for about two hours Monday night, after a 50 kave distribution transformer burned out on Larose Drive. A Calgary Power spokesman said some 15 customers were in the dark for approximately four hours. High snow banks and frozen ground hampered crews in restoring power, as they had to dig through to the switching cubicles to effect the change in transformers.

Winner of the door prize was Mr. J. Mellon. A food hamper was raffled and Mr. and Mrs. B. Titowich were the happy recipients. The gals from the Auxiliary were very pleased

The Editor:

In your last edition where you reported on the Council meeting, and in particular the Public Hearing you quoted the writer as saying I represented the Silent Majority.

This is not true, and if you will take the time to listen to the Tape you made at this meeting you will correct this in your next issue.

I said I disagreed with your statement that you felt the majority of St. Albert was opposed to this rezoning and that I'd like to think that I was part of the silent majority. At no time did I mention that I was representing anyone other than myself.

Now is the time to act on the future of our region

It has become abundantly clear that I, as MLA for St. Albert Constituency, see the future development of the Town of St. Albert under an entirely different concept than does the majority of the members of the present town council.

I am not prepared to accept the proposition that it is impossible to control and disperse growth in such a manner as to give people the kind of residential environment that they are clearly seeking. The growth of St. Albert, Sherwood Park, Fort Saskatchewan, Spruce Grove, in recent years is, I believe, a clear indication that people are in fact fleeing from the city to gain a smaller community environment.

They are giving up some services, putting up with commuting problems and often paying higher taxes to achieve a different life style than that offered by a huge city.

As an elected representative of people living in St. Albert and the Municipal District of Sturgeon, I feel I must be responsive to this strong indication of these deep rooted feelings of people.

Alberta need not have another Chicago - it need not have even another Toronto. It is my very strong conviction that if St. Albert wants to avoid annexation by Edmonton we must act NOW. Any further development to the east and the south-east will have to be stopped. And that is why I opposed the development of the large Syncrude industrial plant on our extreme south-east boundary.

I am not however, opposed to the continuing growth throughout Alberta of a strong industrial base. We need the job opportunities, the balance in the province's economy, and the capital inflow into the west which will occur from secondary industry supported by our natural resources of agriculture, oil and gas, the tar sands, our coal. We must work hand in hand with private industry to achieve these goals. Because private industry has the expertise and the capital to accomplish this kind of development.

But working hand in hand should not mean that the provincial government or municipal governments must be at the mercy of giant foreign development corporations or local land speculators. And so we have to strike a balance. We are in a position to strike that balance now, when all Canada and all big industry realize the value of the natural resources including agriculture of the west.

We can develop both our resource potential and our "environment-for-people" potential simultaneously if we have the imagination and the guts to do it. And Alberta now under the leadership of Premier Lougheed, has the opportunity to prove that industry and government and ordinary people can work together.

In the case of St. Albert Constituency, I feel the interests of people, whether residents of St. Albert or MD Sturgeon or the towns and villages within MD Sturgeon, will be best served if our whole area to the immediate north of Edmonton combine their forces to preserve a life-style to serve the needs of this generation and our children's generation and our grandchildren's generation.

There are economic advantages in locating industrial parks on poor productive land which people of St. Albert and MD Sturgeon people can enjoy on a shared industrial assessment. Proper land use is a tremendously important consideration here.

St. Albert is a centre which can attract some very worthwhile commercial development which is needed by all the people in the whole region. Council is presently looking at two shopping complex developments which would fill a real need of the whole region and also provide the wider tax base which St. Albert clearly requires.

Petty politics should not be allowed to interfere with basic goals of people. When the St. Albert Community Planning Association was formed some two years ago I was astounded that the whole council of the Town of St. Albert turned on Councillor Lukay for attending a meeting of this citizen action group. As a elected representative, a newspaper editor, I also attended and came under fire. Frank Lukay and I were considered naive for supporting a citizens action group. But I believe, and clearly the present Provincial Government believes that citizens action groups should have a say in the decision making which will determine their future.

I don't like to believe that the councillors and mayor, with the exception of one councillor, look on this community action group as a nothing group. They are non-political and as a Conservative MLA, I find myself working with Liberal and Social Credit supporters for the good of St. Albert and welcoming their views. Why does St. Albert Council look on them as an enemy organization? Why did they chastise Councillor Lukay for attending their meetings?

The proposed Syncrude development on our eastern boundary could cost the Town of St. Albert more money in providing the needed services than they will realize out of the tax assessment for years to come. And that's ignoring St. Albert's MLA (motherhood) concerns about kids crossing Hebert Road from Forest Lawn and Akinsdale to get to school and ignoring his businessmen's concern as to the cost of road upgrading, traffic lights, snow plowing etc., to make that crossing safe.

St. Albert Council is criticizing the provincial government's document "towards a new planning act", is saying that that document is penalizing their council for "Wise" financial planning. As your MLA, I would like to pose a question. When the Town of St. Albert Council was working out this wise financial planning they did not know that the provincial government was going to allow them the right of Supplemental Tax assessment. In all fairness it should be said that people buying homes in St. Albert did not know that the Town of St. Albert would be one of the few municipalities in Alberta to take advantage of this so-called permissive legislation.

Last year the Town of St. Albert reaped a benefit of over $200,000 and this year they may garner over $300,000. My question is this. If the town's financial position was sound without the windfall of the supplemental assessment, could not a portion, say $300,000 of the two year's extra assessment have been put into a kitty for a recreational complex? The Town also took advantage of the full 10 per cent allowed for collection fee from the school boards for the foundation portion.

With $300,000 for a start and a Federal-Provincial Capital Projects grant to cover 50 per cent of summer labor costs, and 100 per cent of winter labor, plus further assistance available through other grants, the complex could be underway this year.

Every municipal authority in St. Albert Constituency has invited their MLA -- not once but on many occasions to come out and talk to them about assistance available through Provincial and Federal capital assistance. They are presently taking full advantage of government assistance on both levels and the proof is in the pudding. St. Albert Council has chosen to look on their MLA as an enemy.

St. Albert mayor told a meeting in Morinville last Tuesday (March 12) attended by elected representatives of MD Sturgeon and the Town of Morinville, that if they wanted to pursue discussion of regional co-operation for our area on matters of shared industrial assessment, water, sewer, policing, garbage disposal etc., it could be done only if Ernie Jamison, MLA for the entire constituency was barred from attendance.

In my view, if the people of this whole constituency want to accomplish their goals both financial and environmental wise, this is the wrong way to go about it. But if St. Albert Council is prepared to work with MD Sturgeon and the elected representatives of Morinville, Legal, Bon Accord and Gibbons, there is no way I would stand in the way of co-operation between St. Albert and these jurisdictions to the north of the city because that is where I feel the future of the Town of St. Albert lies.

So Mayor Gibbon and his council need not fear that their MLA will stick his nose into the next joint meeting on April 2nd, hosted by St. Albert. I have no animosity whatever toward St. Albert Council or any member of it. As MLA I believe we should be working together, in a number of areas.

Members of Legislature present gift to MacEwans

"There was a time when you could hear a man whistling as he walked down the street - a cheery habit - one we would like to foster."

The occasion was the annual Western style party hosted by Grant and Phyllis MacEwan for all the members of the Legislature Assembly in the week of the opening of an Alberta Legislature session. And it was Mrs. MacEwan, hostess for the evening who suggested the whistling contest.

There was a nail pounding contest, a tall tales contest, a musical elbows contest, a dance with a kerchief contest plus old time waltzes - circle dances, polkas, all arranged by Alberta's gracious and charming first lady, which left her husband the Hon. J. W. Grant MacEwan, free to join in the dancing. In other words the traditional annual party for the members.

It all began with a grand western supper of beef stew, pork and beans and all the trimmings and Grant MacEwan's favorite dessert - Pecan Pie.

This year the program had a new twist, however, Emcee Horst Schmid did not start the proceedings with the nail pounding contest as arranged. He had a table brought forward, centered by a velvet draped object and spoke of the contribution by the Lieutenant Governor and his wife to Alberta and Canada. Then he called on Gerry Amerongen Speaker of the House to introduce Premier Lougheed and his predecessor Harry Strom.

Both of them paid tribute to the Lieutenant Governor, soon to step down, and his wife, and the Premier removed the velvet covering to unveil an imaginative artistic sculpture in wood of an Indian training a spirited horse - the gift of the members of the Alberta Legislature.

Mrs. MacEwan said she was breaking a rule in speaking first - "Grant has the right to do all the talking in public - and I do all the talking at home," she said - "but I must tell you how beautiful this piece is - we have nothing like it and it will be greatly treasured."

We have lost control of the program said Dr. MacEwan and expressed his pleasure also, but said the gift was not necessary - "My association with all the government members over my nine years in office has been warm and rewarding. And I would like to say" he went on "that I believe Canadians have been well served, in the preservation of democracy, by the men they have chosen on all three levels of government." "Like my wife I leave this post with mixed feelings - but it is time for someone else to take over the reins."

The MacEwans were given a prolonged standing ovation by everyone present.

Following the contests and the dancing - Auld Lang Syne had a very special significance this year - at the last party to be hosted by a well loved Scottish couple who have been such grand representatives of Her Majesty the Queen over nine years in Alberta.

With Grant and Phyllis in the centre an enthusiastic crowd let them know what "Jolly Good Fellows" they truly are.

The Hon. J. W. ## Skaters work on Potpourri show

One hundred and thirty-five young figure skaters are putting the finishing touches on their routines for the annual carnival put on by the St. Albert Figure Skating Club. Under their theme 'Pot Pourri,' groups of skaters will take their audience through celebrations of various Canadian holidays throughout the year. Spectators will be treated to the pageantry of Easter and Christmas holidays, Valentines Day - something for every season of the year. One of the highlights will be an RCMP line pointing up the July Canada Day.

Some other people - club members and parents are also hard at work. Graham Beeby and Marie Duttall are preparing sets in the Beeby's rumpus room, building large frames covered with fabric. By using washable paint the plan is to have durable sets capable of being used for several years, changing the design each year.

Jackie Malinowski is co-ordinating all the music, working along with the professional instructors. Bill Koedam has responsibility for lighting and Barbara Husband is in charge of the costuming. Overall co-ordination is by Marie Koedam and Jackie Malinowski, who report excellent support from club members and parents.

The club now has three senior pros: Heather McBride, Marilyn Godfrey and Bev Forbes, and three junior pros: Sue Pavelich, Joanne Hunt and Heather Tomlinson. They were fortunate when Bev Forbes moved from the east coast to St. Albert in January. Mrs. Forbes formerly coached the ladies champion for the Atlantic provinces right through her senior career.

Debra Lynn Paul will be a guest skater and junior pros Joanne Hunt and Sue Pavelich are doing a duet, but in the main the theme will be worked out by 14 lines of skaters providing interesting and colorful skating action in a one and three-quarter hour show.

The first performance goes Saturday March 30 at 7:30 p.m. followed by a Sunday matinee at 2:30. Tickets are available from any club member, from Hutchings Shoes on Grandin Mall or St. Albert Sportshop on Peron Street.

The score on the High Prairie clock with two seconds to play told the story as the Jasper Auto Parts Comets hung a 9-3 win on the Regals Saturday night. The scoreboard in St. Albert Sunday night was almost a replay as the Comets took a 10-3 win to advance into the Northern Alberta Intermediate 'A' provincials against Sherwood Park Barons this Friday night in St. Albert and Sunday in the Park.

Leskow leads Comets to Northern finals

Hard working Gary Leskow scored five goals and added three assists over the weekend to lead the Jasper Auto Parts Comets to a pair of lopsided wins over High Prairie Regals in provincial intermediate 'A' hockey action.

The win for St. Albert advances them into the Northern Alberta finals against Sherwood Park Barons who took out Fort McMurray in total goals. Comets won the northern crown last year.

The first game of the series goes this Friday (7:30 p.m.) in St. Albert with the second game in Sherwood Park Sunday at 8 p.m. The winner advances to the provincial finals against the southern representative, undecided at present.

On Saturday the Comets travelled to High Prairie and after a slow start, completely dominated the game. Regals tried to outmuscle the Comets out of the series early in the opening period by tactics more suitable for the Sales Pavilion.

Wally Monson opened the scoring at 4:56 of the first on a quick wrist shot that the Regal goalie didn't even move on. High Prairie tied the score at 5:34 on an almost identical shot as Tom Iannone beat Comet goalie Zane Jakubec from 30 feet out. Phil McCargar then put Comets ahead 3-1 on two quick goal-mouth scrambles with linemates Leskow and Andre Contant helping out. Leskow closed out the first period scoring at 19:28 after being set up by Al Laplante.

From this point on everyone in the arena knew who was going to win the game as the Comets completely controlled the play.

Iannone scored his second goal at 11:09 of the second to give the Regals some hope, but it was short lived as Andre Contant connected passes from Leskow and McCargar to put Comets ahead 5-2.

The third period was all Comets as they outshot the Regals 23-5 and scored four straight goals. McCargar added his third, Leskow his second and singles by Randy Clark and Perry Pearn rounded out the Comet scoring. Leroy Haugen scored Regals third goal of the game with only a minute left to play.

On Sunday the Comets gave their fans a replay of the game they missed as they trounced the Regals 10-3 before a large hometown crowd. It wasn't much of a game to watch as Comets appeared to be able to score at will.

Paul St. Cyr with two and singles by Perry Pearn and Leskow gave St. Albert a 4-0 first period lead and 13-3 overall.

The second was all Comets as well with St. Albert outscoring Regals 5-1. Leskow scored two for his hat-trick while Pearn added his second. Wally Monson and Rich Perrault rounded out the Comet scorers.

Tom Iannone scored Regals only second period goal and popped in two more in the final period to offset Al Laplante's only goal of the period. Laplante took a couple of high sticks to the face before taking on supposedly tough Ken Matthews. It was no contest as Laplante landed a number of good shots with none received. There are not many players in the league who will tangle with Laplante, something Matthews should have found out before taking him on.

Comets outshot Regals 112 to 49 in the two games. In four rounds of playoffs, Comets have now taken out Jasper Royals 12-2; Drayton Valley Rebels 14-9; Westlock Eagles 15-2 and High Prairie 19-6 for 60 goals scored and 19 against in only eight games.

Bruins meet Waterloo

The St. Albert Bruins met their Waterloo last weekend and are now out of the semi-final playoffs in the Capital Junior Hockey League.

Waterloo Mercurys defeated the Bruins 8-5 Friday night in St. Albert to even the best of five series at two games each and then handed the Bruins a 4-2 defeat Sunday in Jasper Place Arena. The victory for the Merces advance them into the finals against first place finishers Sherwood Park Knights who took out Stony Plain Flyers in three straight last week.

The five game series between the Bruins and Mercurys was extremely exciting with all games giving the many fans some excellent action.

Penalties, as they have had most of the year, probably cost the Bruins the semi-finals.

On Friday, the Bruins leading the series 2-1 in games fell behind 3-0 early in the opening period on three goals by Darrel Lakusta, one of which was a power play goal while Kelly McAvoy was sitting out an elbowing infraction.

Tim O'Neill scored a power play goal with McAvoy and Bob Wallis assisting to close out the first period scoring. Jay Litke scored early in the second to pull the Bruins to one goal but again fell behind two on Lakusta's fourth goal of the game.

Bruins leading scorer Perry Whan then put on a excellent scoring display rapping in three straight goals, all on passes from Jim McComb to put St. Albert ahead 5-4 at the 8:23 mark of the third period. Bruins appeared to be on their way to the finals only to have Waterloo's leading scorer Dave Martens score from close-in to tie the game 5-5 at 9:56.

Jensen went off for elbowing at 11:15 and Dwayne Lucyk scored a power play goal at 12:20 to win the game for the Mercurys. Lucyk added the insurance marker at 17:06 on another power play marker with Marcel Tourangeau in the penalty box for tripping. Lakusta scored his fifth of the night into an empty net as the Mercurys tied the series.

Sunday in Jasper Place Arena, Mercurys scored two of their four goals while enjoying the man advantage as they eliminated the Bruins 4-2.

Bruins controlled the opening 20 minutes with Kelly McAvoy scoring at 11:25 from Tourangeau and Tim O'Neill to take a 1-0 lead. Waterloo tied the game at 7:20 of the second with Jensen sitting out a high sticking penalty.

Bruins coach, Ken Schwartz left Jensen out following the goal and watched his strong winger go through the entire Mercurys team and scored a beautiful goal to put Bruins ahead 2-1.

Once again while Bruins were playing shorthanded Dave Duff tied the score at 15:40 to go into the final period tied 2-2.

Martens scored the winner at 9:30 of the third on a screened shot that Bruins goalie Carey Winquist had no chance on. Winquist played outstanding between the pipes for the entire series.

Scott Gayler scored the insurance goal with 3 1/2 minutes left to give Waterloo a 4-2 win.

During the five game series Bruins took 66 penalties to 42 for Waterloo. Waterloo scored 10 power play goals to five for the Bruins.

Bruins are now finished for the season with trainer putting away the equipment for another season.

The Teachers sponsored by Rogers/Grandin Esso captured the St. Albert Men's Commercial League championship Monday night with a 6-3 win over Grandin Gulf. Gulf won the title last season. Along with the championship went the Edmonton Valve and Fitting Trophy.

Teachers take Commercial

St. Albert Rogers/Grandin Esso (teachers) hockey club, behind the bugle charge of John Hermans, defeated last year's champs Grandin Gulf 6-3 Monday night to win the Edmonton Valve and Fitting Trophy, emblematic of the St. Albert Men's Commercial League championship.

The teachers also took the opener Friday night 4-2 in the best of three series. This game was a penalty-filled battle that saw three players ejected for a game suspension. Bill Schur and Don Darling from Gulf and D. Rurka from the Teachers took fighting penalties which calls for a game suspension.

Gerry Weisner scored a pair to pace the Teachers with Dan Bowmeister and Ross Johnston added singles in the 4-2 win. Don Darling and Sheldon Webb scored for Gulf.

In the final Monday night Teachers jumped into a 3-1 first period lead on a pair of goals by Danny Chugg and single by B. Berry to offset B. Hall's goal for Gulf.

J. Murphy scored early in the second to give Teachers a 4-1 lead. Gulf playing with only nine players, came back with two goals by Ron Wantamaniuk to close the gap to 4-3. Teachers controlled the third and two more goals by Ed Stoyko and Murphy rounded out the scoring for an excellent 6-3 win.

Only four penalties were called.

Hockey tour plans need adjustment

St. Albert's International hockey tour at Easter has been revised slightly, because of the appearance of the midgets in provincial playoffs, and the probable appearance by the bantams.

Tour dates had to be adjusted because both St. Albert representative teams expect to be in the six-team round-robin provincial play-downs Easter weekend in southern Alberta centres.

The midget Sportshop Barons have already clinched a berth in the championship by going undefeated in the Northwestern Alberta zone series' and the bantam Fire Chiefs meet Jasper this weekend for the right to advance to a similar playoff in southwestern Alberta.

Both teams would play Easter weekend, April 12 to 14, in the hometown zone winner in the southern part of the province.

The rescheduling now means the two-team tour will see the first exhibition series played in Spokane, April 15 and 16, against Spokane's top bantam and midget clubs.

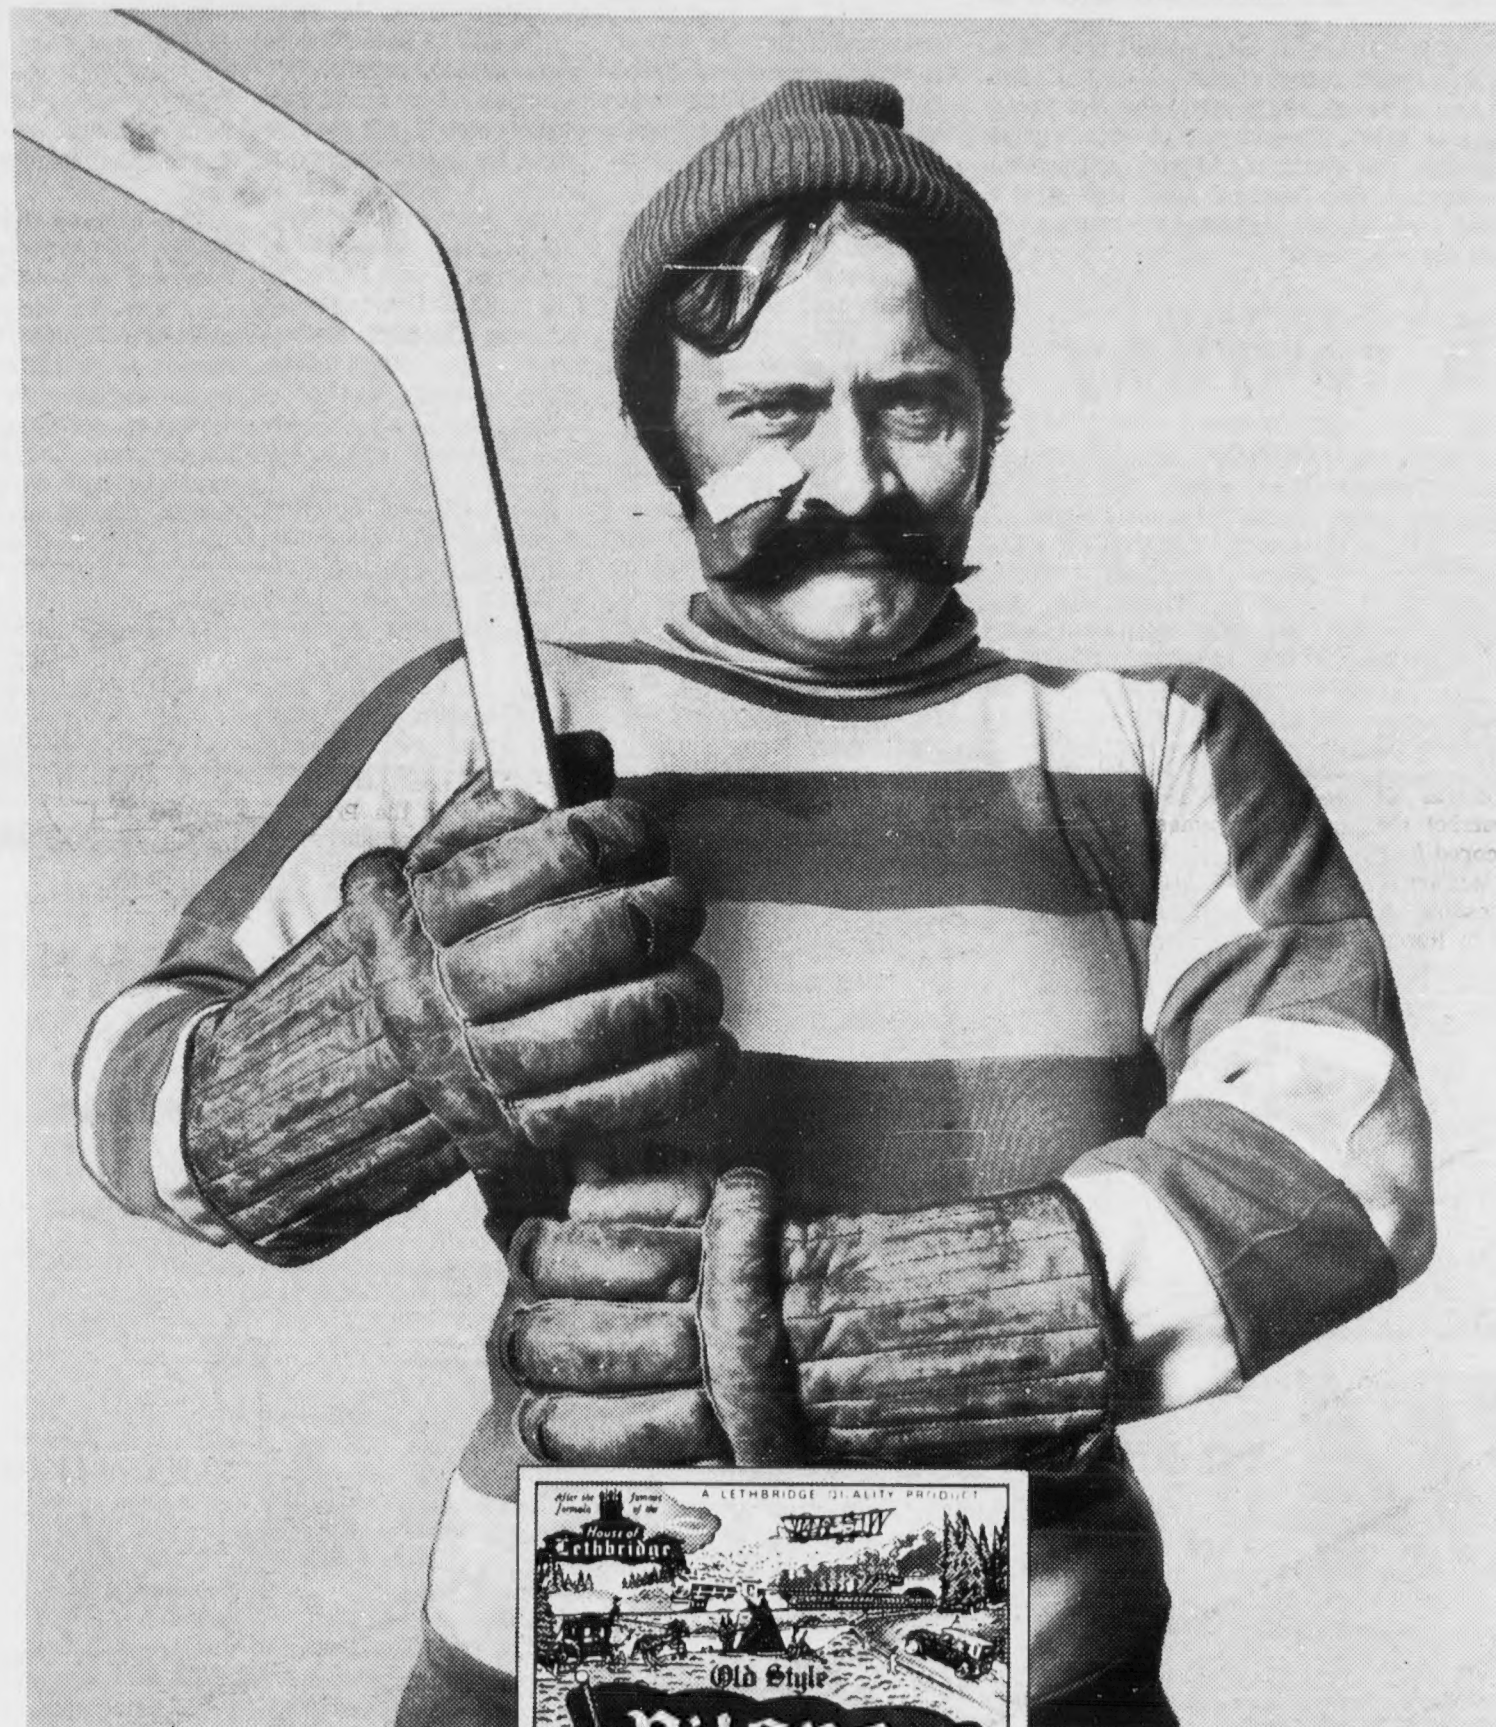

From Spokane, the two teams would continue by chartered bus to Seattle, for games April 17 and 18 against Crest Motel Midget A and Lake City Elks Bantam teams.

On April 19 and 20, the teams would play tough competition in Richmond, B.C. The Richmond bantams are currently in their final series for the Vancouver city hockey championship.

On April 21, the teams would meet Kamloops representative teams, and would return April 22.

The two teams are currently on the final leg of a fund raising campaign in St. Albert to help support the tour, and it is requested business places that have been contacted about financial support make a decision immediately, to facilitate final arrangements.

It is planned the 20-players with each team will be billeted with players from opposing cities.

Alberta's Mixed Curling Champions (from St. Albert of course) will head off to Winnipeg Friday with brand new luggage, gift of the St. Albert Curling Club. M.C. Bob Hudson had some words of encouragement and some useful (?) advice for Skip Roger Comeau, Bunny and Marv Porowski and Darlene Clark. The rink will be accompanied by Roger's wife, Mona and Darlene's husband Lyn, and play in the 11-rink round-robin playdowns gets underway on Sunday. The curling club gave them a rousing send off at a party held for them March 9 when President Jack Jeffries presented the luggage and MLA Ernie Jamison added his congratulations and good wishes.

Progress club tourney

The first annual Canadian Progress Clubs Invitational hockey club tournament is all set for this Saturday in the St. Albert Arena with four clubs competing. A list of the players from each club follows and some well known names will be seen.

The Media probably has the best known name in Eddy Joyal of the Edmonton Oilers. Uncle Dennis will try and keep the shots out in the Progress Club's goal while ex-Edmonton Oil King star Max Mestisek will be trying to put them in.

The Edmonton Eskimos football team is a mystery to date, but rumors have it that Tom Wilkinson, Gary Lafabvre, Dave Syme and Bayne Norrie will suit up.

The St. Albert Lions Club will have Tom Flynn, Max McCann and John Kaminski in the lineup. For McCann and Kaminski it will be their first time on skates since they suited up for Father Lacombe's team against Fort Edmonton a few years ago.

Barons trounce Westlock in exhibition action

St. Albert Sportshop Barons trounced Westlock midweek 15-3 in exhibition hockey Sunday in Westlock, in preparation for the upcoming Northern Alberta Minor Hockey League midweek championship.

Westlock, the second place finishers in regular league play, had scheduled the game expecting to be in the final against the Barons, who finished first in the league with 16 wins and no defeats.

Westlock had defeated third-place Barrhead 8-3 in Barrhead earlier in the week and had scheduled the second game in the best of three playdown for Saturday. Barrhead failed to appear however, because of widespread sickness on their team. As a result, the Sunday game had to be an exhibition match.

Westlock started strong and held a 2-1 first period lead, but St. Albert stormed back to hold an 8-3 second period lead, before pumping in seven more unanswered goals in the third period.

A weeklong layoff for the Barons players, after they clinched the Northwestern Alberta AAHA zone championship, showed on the team as their first period play was sluggish.

However, in the second when the Barons got their legs the only question that remained in the contest was the final score.

Rad Adkins opened scoring for Westlock midway through the first period when he beat St. Albert netminder Keith Logan on a breakaway. Four minutes later Dean Gurak slid a hardshot along the ice past Logan for a 2-0 lead, but it was there the tide turned.

With just over five minutes remaining, Baron's Darrel Billsten poked home a loose puck from a scramble after the Barons had exerted considerable pressure, and it was only some excellent goaltending by Westlock netminder Blaine Cooper in the final five minutes that kept the score from mounting.

With only 23 seconds gone in the second, Billsten tied the score 2-2 on a pass from Chris Hoffart, and then he tallied his third straight goal another 18 seconds later to put the Barons into the lead.

Defenceman Wayne Kuzio scored his first of two at the 2:15 mark, and the route was on. Doug Cinnamon made it 5-2 at the seven minute mark, although Westlock's Robert Tinnak got that one back a minute and a half later.

John Wells got his first of two for the Barons midway through the period, while additional goals from Lloyd Olson and Steve Foreman made it 8-3 at the end of the second.

In the third the Barons were flying and goals by Terry Laddy and Kuzio by the midway mark made it 10-3.

Wells got his second -- and the prettiest of the night -- when he blocked a pass from a Westlock defenceman while St. Albert was playing shorthanded, and raced in all alone on Westlock replacement goaltender Michael Moruzewich. Moruzewich was caught 30 feet out of his net when he attempted to beat Wells for the puck, and it was a simple matter for the speedy right-winger to simply skate around him and deposit an easy backhander into the net.

In the space of the final four minutes, Gary Ferguson got his first goal of the night, as did Greg Taiment, while Billsten collected his fourth and Cinnamon his second.

The best of five league final is now expected to get underway in Westlock Friday, with the second game back in St. Albert 4 p.m. Sunday. The third game would also be in St. Albert, 7:30 p.m. Monday, while a fourth game, if necessary, would be back in Westlock and a fifth in St. Albert.

Juveniles advance

St. Albert Juvenile Hockey Club defeated Drayton Valley 6-3 Saturday night in St. Albert to win the North Central Zone provincial playoffs 12-10 in the two game total goal series. St. Albert lost 7-6 in Drayton Valley a week ago.

Going into Saturday's game, St. Albert trailed by one goal but quickly got things even on Jeff Holden's goal early in the opening period. Terry Keiser put St. Albert ahead for the first time in the series at 6:19 and Mike David's gave them a two goal lead at 13:18 to round out the first period scoring in St. Albert's favor 3-0 and 9-7 in the two games. St. Albert really turned it on in the second, scoring three more on goals by Dave Grice, Ian Langridge and Matt Lister for a series lead of 12-7.

In the final 20 minutes Drayton Valley made a run for a comeback, scoring three unanswered goals in the first 10 minutes to reduce St. Albert's lead to 12-10. St. Albert goalie, Kris Nickerson then shut the door for the rest of the period to preserve the win and advance them along the playoff trail.

To date no team has been declared in the Central Alberta series.

In league play St. Albert advanced to the finals against Stony Plain with an easy 11-4 win over Namas Sunday. Roger Meunier led the St. Albert attack with three while Matt Lister, Mike Davids and Terry Keiser added a pair each. Steve Hoffart and Scott Ballantine tallied the others. Lister also picked up four assists.

Scorpions win CWRA tourney

Calahoo Scorpions led by Gary Acheson's nine goals won the Central West Recreation eight-team senior hockey tournament over the weekend at the Onoway Arena. Scorpions won by default against Winterburn who failed to show and trimmed Morinville 9-4.

Mark Contant led Calahoo with four goals, Acheson three and singles by Jack Wozny and Emile Berube.

In the semi-finals Sunday, Calahoo scored a close 4-3 win over Legal on a pair of goals by Acheson with Emile Berube and Jack Wozny getting the others. Laurent Coulombe scored a pair for Legal.

In the finals Acheson rapped in four including the winner with 30 seconds remaining to give Scorpions a 6-5 win over Bon Accord Wildcats. Jacque Contant and Wozny scored the others.

Lancers lose zone final

The Pee wee Lancers lost two weekend games to Hinton Peewees, 4-2 in Hinton Friday and 4-3 in St. Albert Sunday.

The Lancers found out that you have to play 60 minutes to win championships.

In both games the boys let up in the second period at which time Hinton went ahead. Hinton had a big strong well coached team and they took advantage of every break.

Todd Murray in the Lancers goal was outstanding in both games as was his brother Troy. Troy was picked the star in Friday's game in Hinton and was also the star of Sunday's game.

Troy Murray, Pat Poulin, each picked up a goal on Friday with Mowatt getting one and Neeser two on Sunday. The Lancers outshot Hinton 24-21 in Hinton and 41-19 in St. Albert. This shows that they went down fighting.

The Lancers still have league playoffs coming up against Barrhead who eliminated Fort Saskatchewan two straight, then at Easter, they are going to the North Star tournament in Saskatchewan.

The team were most grateful for the support of St. Albert Inn, St. Albert Community League, Pro-Western Plastics, St. Albert Sportshop, Hutchings Shoes, St. Albert 66 Service and an anonymous donation of $75., which made their trip possible.

Constables Hamilton and Peebles of the Edmonton City Police Force put on a marvellous exhibition of how a trained German Shepherd assists in their work, which greatly impressed students at Lorne Akins Junior High during Education Week. The intelligence of the dog and its complete obedience to commands had them marvelling. The demonstration was only one of an exceptionally varied and well rounded program arranged for the afternoon, when the public were invited. Distinguished visitors were from the RCMP, Fish and Wildlife, NAIT, Wardair, Syncrude, Karate and Kung Fu Schools, Drug and Alcohol Commission, CJCA and others, including Mayor Gibbon, Emile Pelletier and Renee Laird, and representatives of the Hypnosis Association and Deaf Education.

A LONG ONE!

In the 1933 playoff semifinals, Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins played three of the first four games into overtime. In the fifth game, there was no score at the end of regulation time. They then played five gruelling 20-minute overtime periods, and they were still tied.

Should they toss a coin to decide the winner? The Maple Leaf crowd would not go along with that. So, a sixth overtime period was started. 4 minutes and 46 seconds later, the Leaf's Ken

Paul Kane Students win Legion essay contest

Miss Melissa Argy, 15 year old grade 10 student of Paul Kane High was an easy winner for her classic poem submitted in the Royal Canadian Legion 1974 Remembrance Literary Contest last November. Having claimed first in the local branch level, competing with students from all St. Albert schools, she came first in Zone eliminations which saw contestants from Edmonton high schools and 16 other rural points surrounding the city.

The District eliminations came next and again Melissa became an easy winner, against students from a wider area from Edmonton to the Rockies and north to Fort McMurray. One more hurdle awaits Melissa at the Provincial Finals coming soon for her chance to complete in the Dominion finals and a chance for winning that coveted award and a chance for a trip to Ottawa to participate in the national memorial service next November the 11th as part of her prize.

Certificates and monetary awards were presented to students of St. Albert schools by the Royal Canadian Legion last Monday Feb. 25 by W. D. (Denny) Taylor president of Legion Branch 271, assisted by Rudy Schriber, Branch Welfare Officer. Participating in the Legion Remembrance Day Literary Contest were students from both junior and senior high classes of Paul Kane and St. Albert High and Lorne Akins and Sir George Simpson schools and judges went through 48 entries in the senior and junior essays and poetry classes.

In the Branch finals, Carol Anne Hapchyn and Cathy Adams both of Paul Kane High came first and second in the senior essay class and received cheques for $15 and $10 each. In the senior class poetry Melissa Argy of Paul Kane High submitted her first prize winning poem followed by Marie Blanche Curial of St. Albert High and they received similar cheques.

In the junior class essays and poetry, Helgi Eyford of Lorne Akins was first for the essay followed by Carolyn Seitz also of Lorne Akins. Kent Collingridge of Lorne Akins and Brian Pimblett of Sir George Simpson school submitted winning poems. All received cheques of $10 for first and $5 for second.

All these winners went to the Zone Eliminations under charge of Zone Commander Walter Thomas of Fort Saskatchewan, competing with students from schools in Edmonton and 16 surrounding country schools and the results announcing winners included Brian Pimblett of St. Albert High in the junior poetry class and received a medallion and certificate of merit, as a second prize winner. But Melissa Argy of St. Albert was an easy winner in her poetry class also received a medallion and certificate in addition to her cheque presented to her by the St. Albert Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

The Royal Canadian Legion expressed thanks and deep appreciation to the principals and teachers of St. Albert schools for the interest and participation and active support to this program. Special thanks were extended to Mr. Ken Kellough, school teacher of 13411 - Dovercourt Ave., who gave background information to prospective classes and ran films at the request of some schools on the subject, and to Comrade Rudy Schriber, Branch 271 Welfare officer for the conduct of the entire contest in St. Albert.

Certificates and monetary awards were presented in the Legion Essay Contest to winning contestants from Paul Kane High on February 25. Mrs. McAllister of the teaching staff is at left with Rudy Schriber of St. Albert Branch, Royal Canadian Legion, Carole Anne Hapchyn, who placed first in the branch finals, Melissa Argy, zone finalist in the poetry section, and Cathy Adams, second place contestant at branch level, and President Denny Taylor who made the award presentations.

MELISSA ARGY'S WINNING POEM

"One minute of silence . . ."
And we bow our heads solemnly
Over our bright plastic poppies,
As we generously bequeath
One moment of our time
To the forgotten dead,

One minute . . . . . !

"Pray for them . . . . ."
And we pray with fervor.
We, who have never seen death
Or fear, or hunger, or despair,
We, who have never been grasped
By war's cruel fingers,
Pray for the dead.
They gave us our freedom.
We don't understand . . . but

We pray . . . . . !

"Remember them always . . ."
And we try to keep their significance fresh and alive in our hearts and minds.
Quickly though, these instants
of recognition pass and fade,
And soon we have forgotten them,
And all that we owe them,
That which can never be repaid.

Remember . . . . . !

"Be proud of your country . . ."
And our hearts pound as we think
Of our young free country.
We honour those who helped us keep it
By giving them a moment of our time,
Them, who unselfishly gave us their lives.

BE PROUD . . . . . !

APRIL AID

The income tax help system and how to make it work for you.

As you know by now, we changed a lot of things last year. We gave you a new return, a new Guide, several new deductions and a few new rules. And quite honestly, we were more than a little concerned about your reaction to it all. (And very, very interested in your opinions.)

Well, now that we've had time to really look back at it and assess it honestly, it appears that most taxpayers did not seem to find it too difficult. The error rate did not accelerate greatly or change drastically from former years. Generally, most taxpayers seemed to handle their new returns fairly well.

However, Income Tax will never be the easiest or most enjoyable thing in anyone's life. And it will always present problems in some areas, for some people. That's expected and understandable.

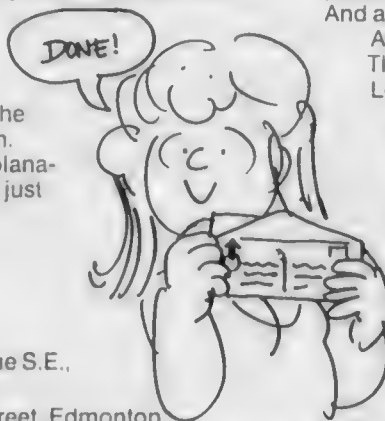

So, what we want to do now is really work on those problem areas. And the best way to do that is to work with you, individually, on whatever part of Income Tax that causes you difficulty.

And that's what April Aid is all about. It's a help system and its primary objective is to ensure that whenever or whatever you need help with, you can get it. And know how to get it.

And this is how it works:

First, Your Guide is always the best answer when you have a problem. Read it. Follow it. It not only gives explanations, but in many cases, examples of just how to figure something out.

Second, If you're still confused or something just doesn't seem to work, phone. The number of your own District Taxation Office is below and at the end of that number there are people whose only job is to help taxpayers with problems, by telephone. And on Mondays and Tuesdays phone lines are open 'til 6 p.m. So don't hesitate.

If you live outside the office area, call the Operator and ask for Zenith 0-4000. She will automatically connect you to your own District Taxation Office. Remember, all calls are free, all questions are answered, and if you have queries, we want you to call.

Third, Some people prefer to talk things over in person. If you're one of them and have problems, drop by for free help. Anytime. The address of your District Taxation Office is below.

Fourth, Write. To the address below. Explain your problem as clearly as possible and include all information. (And your return address, please.) In return, we'll answer all letters as quickly and clearly as possible. Remember - if you need help, it's there. (And free). And all you have to do is ask.

April Aid.
The Income Tax help system
Let's make it work for you.

students hold science fair

Students of Grade 4, Room 2, held a Science Fair at Sir Alexander Mackenzie school Friday afternoon. The event was a culmination of a four week unit of work in a scientific area of each student's choice.

During this period students did research and some even went on tours to further their understanding of their topics.

To complete the project students prepared reports, posters or charts and displays, which were presented to other students and parents in the form of a fair.

Areas covered were Animal Study, Dissection, Airplanes, Submarines, Space, Electricity, Geology, Plant Study and Cameras.

Simpson students learn survival

Thirty-one students from Sir George Simpson Junior High School attended a winter camp-out at the Hunter Training and Conservation Camp at Narrow Lake on March 4, 5 and 6, 1974.

They received instruction in fire making, shelter building, axe handling, trapping and snaring, ice fishing, the handling of firearms, signals snowshoeing and other basic survival skills. Six to seven students were assigned to each lean-to group and were expected to be able to cook all their own meals and collect enough firewood to last the night. Students slept through temperatures of 18 below with very few adverse effects.

Despite a few cold feet and cold fingers, the students carried out all of their activities with great vigor and enthusiasm and left the camp with a greater appreciation of survival problems and more ability to cope with them.

The students were supervised by Mr. J. Wilson, a parent, Mr. R. Long, a consultant from the YMCA, Mrs. J. Howko and Mr. Red Husey of Hunter Training and Conservation Staff and Mrs. C. Wardell, their teacher.

The trip represented the practical application of the techniques and procedures discussed in the classroom setting prior to the trip as the major emphasis of a Grade 7 elective course.

Breakfast Lions report

The St. Albert Breakfast Club met at the St. Albert Inn Tuesday, March 12, at 6:45 a.m. and were presented with the state of officers for the coming year. All positions were elected by acclamation, with the exception of tall twister, which will be contested by two members. Election will be held at the next meeting, March 26.

The Progress Club was represented by L. Mix, and J. Ballantyne, who gave information on the upcoming hockey tournament, and left a supply of tickets to be sold by the Lions.

Don Merrill gave a quick outline of the possibilities of holding a winter carnival, but as time was growing short, he was asked to return at the next meeting. Any members who were not present at the last meeting should make a point of being at the St. Albert Inn on March 26, to hear what he has to say.

Constable R. F. Cockshutt of the local RCMP Detachment took advantage of Paul Kune High School's Open House, March 6 to present a copy of A Pictorial History of the RCMP to the school. The presentation was made on behalf of the members and staff of the local RCMP Detachment as part of the RCMP Centennial. Mr. Dave Geddes accepted the donation on behalf of the staff and students.

Fascinating history of Fort Saskatchewan goes on advance sale

Starting with the district's first industry - boat building several hundred years ago and ending with the great industrial boom of the mid twentieth century, Peter Ream's latest book "The Fort on the Saskatchewan" brings alive over a century of history of one of the oldest settled parts of the Province.

It narrates the early Indian activity near the mouth of the Sturgeon River, then known as Birch Hills where plentiful supplies of spruce and birch bark made possible the building of canoes long before the advent of the white man. It was here that Anthony Henday, the first white man to penetrate into Alberta, camped in the Spring of 1755 to prepare for his long trip back to Hudson Bay.

Forty years later, in the summer of 1795, the first Fort Augustus was established by the North-West Company a few miles downriver from the present Town of Fort Saskatchewan and on the north bank. In the same year the Hudson's Bay Company built Edmonton House close by. Two other trading posts were also established about this time by independent traders.

In 1874 the North-West Mounted Police made their incredible trek across the prairies and the main force established Fort Macleod. However, it is questionable if they would have reached their objective, had it not been for a part of "A" Troop under Inspector Jarvis which broke off from the main body at Roche Percée and proceeded to Fort Edmonton, 900 miles away, taking with them all the sick men and horses and the bulk of the provisions. Much has been written about the march of the main force, (and this was indeed an epic ride) but little is heard about "A" Troop, travelling over Muskeg and around sloughs with sick men and weakened horses. It is greatly to their credit that they reached Fort Edmonton, a mere couple of weeks after the main force reached Fort Macleod. In the Spring of 1875 they moved downriver and built "The Fort on the Saskatchewan."

The N.W.M.P. eventually established "G" Division and for many years the Fort was the base for police patrols extending into the Arctic and Northwest Territories - as far as the Hudson Bay.

First settlement took place in 1872 with the arrival of Francois and Joseph Lamoureux, who located north of the river. The settlement, earlier known as the City of Saskatchewan, later became Lamoureux and the first Roman Catholic Public School in the Province was established in March 1885. A group of German settlers took up homesteads at Josephburg and in 1892 the Parry Sound Colony arrived from Ontario.

Fort Saskatchewan came close to being wiped out during the Riel Rebellion of 1885 and it was only the presence of a company of the 65th Montreal Rifles, garrisoned in the fort at the time which prevented this.

Some years ago, the author published a small volume on the history of the area and he now draws from a much wider knowledge of his subject. This is a resource book and the material has been thoroughly researched through such sources as the national and provincial archives, municipal records and newspapers of the time. He has been particularly fortunate in being given access to the early records of the Oblate Fathers in St. Albert and much of the factual accounts of events in the Sturgeon and Lamoureux areas are from this source.

Dr. Ream was born in the United Kingdom. He came to Canada in 1950 and was ordained as a minister of the United Church in 1953. He was educated in England and received an M.A. degree from Oxford University and subsequently B.D. degrees from University of Alberta and a past President of the Alberta Conference.

The author has resided in Fort Saskatchewan since 1956. He is married with five children and has been most active in community affairs.

It is expected that the book will be released about the end of April of this year.

and the University of London. In 1972 St. Stephens College, Edmonton conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Dr. Ream's activity in the Church encompasses all levels, local, provincial and national. He is a member of the Executive of General Council of the United Church

Villeneuve girl weds Red Deer man

By Margaret Borle

St. Peter's Catholic Church Villeneuve was the setting for the afternoon marriage of Theresa Maria Toussaint, daughter of Mrs. Doreen Toussaint and the late Roland Toussaint, to William Charles Hoogewoonink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoogewoonink of Red Deer. Father Cunningham officiated.

The bride's charming gown of white was accented by beadwork and applique. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Rosemarie Thair, and bridesmaids Mrs. Elaine Hoogewoonink, and Miss Margaret Toussaint were lovely in gowns of royal blue with white trim. They carried bouquets of blue-tinted white mums.

The groom accented his black tuxedo with a yellow rose boutonniere. Best men in gray with black velvet trim were Mr. John Toussaint, Mr. Paul Lacroix and Mr. Bill Hoogewoonink.

Morinville carnival draws large crowd

By Flo McGinnis

It's a Small World, that was the theme of the carnival for 1974 when the Morinville Lions Figure Skating Club presented their very fine program on Sunday, March 10.

With an extremely good crowd of some 320 people, the local figure skaters showed their very best form. Always a favorite are the 'little ones' and this year they won the hearts of the audience with their group presentation entitled "The Unicorn," complete with all the animals.

Guest performers were Bella Carlson, Lise Houle, Donna Faye Bixle, Vivian Blackburn, Donna Kryskow, Cynthia Robinson, Phillip Saldern, and Sharon Sullivan. These are all local young people with the exception of Sharon Sullivan who is the assistant instructor for the club.

Just prior to intermission there was a 'mini finale' skated to "Canada," and it was very effective, with good audience response. The 1973 Carnival Queen, Miss Janice Van Brabant drew the winning ticket for the raffle on an AC-DC portable 12" TV. Gail Critchley of Bon Accord was the lucky person who took away the prize.

The group of Beginners presented each of the guest skaters with a small gift, while the instructor Marg Sullivan received a bouquet of roses presented by Janice Van Brabant, and the of the water meters.

In the Mayor's Report, Mayor Stapleton outlined the major activities of Town Council during the past year. There were 24 regular, and 13 special meetings held. The report included: Town's participation in the Sturgeon Regional Recreation Council; inclusion of Employee Benefits (Pension Plan); the Street Improvement Program begun (paving); the Street and House Numbering Program; and Annexation procedures started in 1973 for annexation of approximately 430 acres of land.

Councillor Houle gave a report indicating that 19,482 feet of paving was contracted for, and that 12,730 feet of 'first lift' was completed before the weather closed in last fall. The 'second lift' will be done with a paver. Mr. Houle also stated that work had begun on lanes in 1973, and will continue in 1974. Sidewalks were built on Ethier Street (99th Street), and on Frontenac Avenue (104 Ave.). In order to control the dust situation next summer, a new sweeper was purchased last November at a great saving.

Councillor Demers gave a breakdown of the expenses for Sanitation. A total of $16,000 was spent on water and sewer.

Reporting on recreation, Councillor Atkinson stated that he felt that the Regional Recreation participation is showing results.

Anne Maslyk, councillor in charge of the Library, reported that the interior of the library had been renovated, and that floor covering was installed. The moving of the interior walls has created more space within the library itself.

Coming under general discussion were: Sewage Lagoons, Census (which will be taken in 1974), and Policing of the Town. Electors entered well into the discussions and it was felt to have been a good, informative meeting when adjournment came at 10:15 p.m.

Gibbons old-timer passes

On February 23, 1974, Mr. Fred Dale, a long time resident of Gibbons and district passed away at the age of 97 years.

Funeral services for Mr. Dale were held on Wednesday February 27 from Howard and McBride's Chapel with Reverend T. McKnight officiating. Interment was held in the Edmonton Cemetery, where members of the Gibbons Royal Canadian Legion #226, held a Dedication of Memorial. Mr. Dale was a honorary member of the Legion for a period of 26 years. Four of his grandsons and two grandsons-in-law acted as pallbearers. Many floral tributes and cards of sympathy were received by the family. His granddaughter, Mrs. Jerry (Judi) Woytack, of Victoria, B.C., and grandson, Bill Dale, of Courtney, B.C., flew up for the service.

Mr. Dale was born on December 24, 1876 in Rushton, England. He moved to Macleod, where he drove a lorry for John R. Green, wholesale and retail merchant. He married Loutse Jane Tatton and became an insurance agent for a period of one year, whereafter he started a wholesale bakery for five years.

He and his wife and son, William, emigrated to Canada in April, 1910, farming in various districts of Alberta including Waugh, New Lannon, Fairfield and finally Gibbons, where he remained for over 60 years.

Mr. Dale served as secretary-treasurer for Waugh School District, New Lannon and Creuzet. The family settled on a farm just south of Gibbons. Bill Dale moved on to British Columbia to make his home. Soon afterwards, a second child, Winnifred, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale. On August 8, 1931, Mrs. Dale passed away, leaving Mr. Dale and their young daughter to manage the farm and household. During the war, Mr. Dale served at the Aircraft Repair Centre in Edmonton as well as Fort William, Winnipeg married and settled down to farm life.

3 developments proceed in Village of Gibbons

All three developments in the village have now received approvals in principle and would seem to be ready to start work as soon as weather permits. The southern development is getting underway with the starting of sewer and storm sewer installations.

The senior citizens accommodation survey is still underway and if you have not sent in your survey sheet, please do so immediately so that we may send in our application for these accommodations as soon as we have the required information.

Mayor Loblick has declared the week of April 1 to 7 as "Recreation Festival Week."

Fire Chief Earl Yeo and two councillors have again taken membership in the Alberta Provincial Fire Chiefs Association.

The council have agreed that no more snow will be dumped on the recreation grounds due to complaints from some sources. It was a request at the beginning of winter that the village should put the snow there for recreation use.

The village has given permission for the paper bin to be placed at the south end of the garage for those people that have paper to deposit. This paper will be sold and proceeds given to the Brownie, Guide and Ranger organization.

The Village engineer came to the meeting to report on his comments and duties on the developments. He felt that most of the development agreements have progressed favorably.

The council has asked the recreation board for a full statement of the Sno Ball '74 festivities.

A special meeting is being set up to update the village zoning bylaw and building permit bylaw and to try to anticipate the future plans of the village and to construct and plan accordingly.

The Village of Gibbons Volunteer Fire Department have an opening for two volunteer firemen. Anyone that would like to join our department who are willing to take turns at fire duties and possibly fire phone contact Earl Yeo at the village office.

Mr. Dale remarried to Selma Christie in 1949. They made their home in Gibbons, where for a period of 16 years Mr. Dale was employed at a service station owned and managed by Jack Hogg, serving as bookkeeper as well as service attendant. He also served as secretary-treasurer for the Gibbons Community Centre.

His son, Bill, passed away in September of 1957 in Vancouver, just over 10 years later, in January of 1968, Selma Dale passed away. Mr. Dale remained in Gibbons, performing all his own household chores, up until February of 1973, when he moved to his daughter's home. He retained his keen wit and enjoyed reminiscing his past with all his friends and relatives. His "green thumb" brought him many satisfying moments, and was envied by many. # Brown - Montpetit Wedding

By Lucienne Montpetit

St. Faith's Anglican Church in Edmonton was the scene of a pretty winter wedding when Miss Pauline Montpetit exchanged marriage vows with Mr. George Brown on February 23.

Father Elliott performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Montpetit of Legal and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown from Winnipeg, Man. Two brandy sniffers with yellow and white mums and chrysanthemums were placed on the altar.

The wedding music was played by Doreen Doyle with soloist Gillian Horner.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in her white velvet sleeveless gown featuring a high bodice with curved seam and round neckline with shaped skirt. Her lace coat with cut on train, had long set in sleeves gathered into frilled loop and buttoned cuffs with lace trimming around attached hood and coat.

The bridal bouquet was a crescent cascade of tallisman roses centered with a white orchid.

Maid of Honor Debra Brown, daughter of the groom, and bridesmaids Sherry Lynn James and Sandra Kotch wore identical burnt orange velvet gowns with high bodice, A-line skirts and short sleeves. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Best men were Mark Brown (groom's son) Elson Olorenshaw and John Murtagh.

Following the ceremony a banquet was held at the Legal Community Centre with Mark Brown acting as master of ceremonies. Norman James presented the toast to the bride.

To receive her guests Mrs. Montpetit was lovely in her orange gown complimented by an orchid. Mrs. Brown chose a rose gown with a mauve orchid en corsage.

The happy couple will reside in Edmonton. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Anita Kotchon, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. Russ Russell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Russell, Mr. Craig Russell and Linda all from Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Montpetit, Grande Prairie and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Montpetit, Vermillion.

Poor Sportsmanship

The Editor:

Last Saturday my husband and I went to watch the final regional basketball game which was hosted in the Town of Gibbons in the school gymnasium.

Our daughter played with the home team and she had begged us to come and help to keep up their spirit.

We stayed for only a short time but what we witnessed was of utterly bad taste, an attitude of unsportsmanship on the side of the Horse Hill team.

Their cheerleaders seemed to dominate the entire game to a point of distracting from the original purpose. Their performances were an overpowering show for itself.

Extremely organized as they were, their phrases and songs we found in terribly bad taste. Such as a song in which they used wordings like: "Gibbons people may talk a lot, but we can beat them at any old time."

I always thought that the idea of cheerleading was to lift up the spirit of ones team.

Instead, the Horse Hill most organized cheerleaders mainly concentrated on ripping down the spirit of the Gibbons team with ugly accusations, a down grading of the opposition team rather as an upgrading of their own team.

Sure, Horse Hill, you won the game here, but at the same time you lost something else.

I personally wish to congratulate the LOOSERS for their fair behavior and fine attitude during and after the game. The Gibbons girls were sad of course, but I have not heard one single word yet, which could put them on the same level.

I hope that next time Gibbons will have their own cheerleaders too, I realize the importance of it. It surely has an affect on the players.

Edith Eichner,
Gibbons.

Board presses for Namao High School

The Board of Sturgeon School Division has re-affirmed its position on Namao as the site for a central high school for the Division in a letter to the Minister of Education, L. Hyndman.

In a series of meetings with the Thibault School District Board held at the suggestion of Mr. Hyndman last July, the Board explored the concept of joint high school services and concluded that only the Namao site was financially feasible for the Sturgeon Division.

A major factor in the Board's decision was a cost study which indicated that a

A Snowmobile Gymkhana was held at Namao on March 9 with a small but enthusiastic crowd attending, it was nice to see Gordon Wenzyl from Horse Hills come out.

Top points was won by Sharon Davis on a Chaparral. 2nd - Ray Melnyk; 3rd - Gordon Wenzyl; 4th - George Mullen; 5th - Marshall Davis; 6th - Jim Wallace.

Congratulations to Debbie Rye and the Lazerte High School senior girls basketball team for winning the city and provincial cups and also the provincial trophy for best sportsmanship.

Namao School and Community League will hold their "Cotton Ball" in the school auditorium on Friday, April 19 to the music of the Twiliters. Refreshments 8 p.m. dancing 9:30 - 1:30 a.m. Tickets $6 per couple, may be purchased at Johnny's Store, Samis Garage, Vera Huber - 799-3849, Clayton Crozier 799-3248

Namao 4H Buttons and Bows Club meeting was held on Feb. 26 at the home of Anna Huber. It was decided that public speaking night would be March 12 for the seniors and March 15 for the juniors at 7:30 p.m. in the Church. A discussion on demonstration night was held and it was decided it will be April 2 at 7 p.m. in the Hall. The date of March 26 was chosen for the members to attend the Rodeo and the next meeting date is March 19. Lanny Robertson explained what to do on Public Speaking night and Audrey Gibson gave the girls a demonstration of a speech.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wozny on the birth of a son, Blain Albert on March 13, and to proud grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Latimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paul have returned from an interesting holiday in the Tahiti Islands. They found the Island of Moorea very lowly populated and very primitive. Government legislation does not allow buildings to be erected higher than a Palm tree, about 40 feet. They also enjoyed a three day trip to the Islands of Bara Bora. The sun was very hot so Harold and Angy are sporting beautiful tans.
